

career opportunities

Business: PMES

Ref: 10/022

Location: Rugeley

Wirer Fitter

Job purpose

Reporting to the Assembly Team Leader, PMES is looking to recruit Wirer Fitters in the assembly department. The successful candidate will be a self motivated, flexible with an ability to read and interpret drawings

The role requires the candidate to assemble and wire electronic control cubicles systems and sub assemblies to drawings, wiring schedules and circuit diagrams in a timely and professional manner. Refurbish returned equipment and Install and modify equipment on customer's premises.

Key responsibilities

- Receive Job Package and review
- Prioritise build sequence
- Ensure all work is of a high standard
- Build job from all the relevant information provided e.g. GA'S, Cct diagrams, Wiring schedules
- Recognise and work around shortage problems
- Experienced in specialist tooling
- To have the ability to work unsupervised
- To undertake the build of first off / prototype equipment and liaise with Engineering to achieve optimum solutions
- Liaise with Engineering re: any design change/rectification
- Liaise with QA department on standards, i.e. Engineering Manual, preferred components, workmanship standards
- Liaise with Material Control re: component/material problems
- To work with Test / Engineering to resolve problems as they occur
- To operate all equipment in a safe and effective manner
- Ability to plum pipe work etc, for water cooled rectifiers
- To create fault sheets
- Working off site as and when required
- To be available to work two shift patterns as and when required

Personal attributes

- Apprenticeship trained or appropriate equivalent experience.
- Flexibility, motivation and commitment.
- Minimum five years previous experience allied to a proven ability to correctly interpret manufacturing information and carry out related self-inspection tasks.
- IPC 620 CERTIFIED.
- A good knowledge of ISO 9001:2000 procedures associated with the manufacture of equipment to a very high standard.
- Capable of working with minimal supervision.

Applications should be forwarded to Human Resources at: vacancies@ultra-pmes.com

Closing date for application: 13 August 2010

Ultra Electronics is committed to equal opportunities and career development both within and across all businesses. If you are interested in the vacancy listed above, please speak to your Manager or local Personnel contact in the first instance.